TotalEnergies Marketing USA signs new lubricant distribution partnership

OK Petroleum has been selected by the company to bring high performance products to Long Island, New York.

TotalEnergies Marketing USA announced a strategic partnership with Long Island-based OK Petroleum to bring its product portfolio to a wider audience across the region.

Through this partnership, OK will offer a variety of TotalEnergies products, including its complete line of engine oils, its oil portfolio for commercial fleets and heavy machinery, and lubricants for the food processing and manufacturing industries.

"We are excited to partner with OK Petroleum, a company known for its commitment to quality and customer service. This partnership will allow us to expand our reach on Long Island and provide local businesses with access to our industry-leading lubricants and specialty fluids," said Franck Bagouet, President of TotalEnergies Marketing USA.

As part of the Americas Division for the Marketing & Services Branch of the TotalEnergies Group, this division is headquartered in Linden, New Jersey and operates out of 3 facilities across the US. It manufactures premium and specialty products for the automotive, steel, aluminum, food, glass, and heavy duty industries in the US.

This association will provide Long Island businesses with access to a wider range of lubricants and specialty fluids, helping them to improve efficiency, reduce downtime, and extend the life of their equipment.
