APEA Live 2021

- The Exhibition: Don't be the company who should have been there.

Your chance to research and discover the latest products and most innovative services on the forecourt and petroleum market. Not only that but it is a great networking and business opportunity – arrange your client meetings; in one place, on the same day. Register today, then start planning how to make the most of your day out of the office.

- The Conference: Regulation, retail and the future of transport.

Sponsored by ELAFLEX

Internationally-recognised speakers on the hottest industry talking points and trends. Featuring regulatory updates, the latest on the Government's proposed ban on new petrol / diesel vehicle sales, insights from thought-leaders behind new cleaner low emission fuels to rival EVs - plus a high profile panel debating the best way to increase your forecourt sales by 10%!

- The Awards: Celebrate the leading lights of your industry.

Sponsored by Nupi Industrie Italiane

Awards entry submissions are open! Celebrate your achievements by entering here.

Preceded by an elite networking experience at the Pre-Dinner Drinks reception, the APEA Awards Dinner is, hands down, the industry's biggest night of the year, providing a magnificent climax to another year of challenges, hard work and great achievements.

The previous ceremony was extra special, with a hilarious guest appearance from Colin Murray as the host for evening, with comedian Andy Parsons giving a side-splitting set.

Nominate your company for an award and give your business the chance of recognition amongst peers. Prove you are the best of the best.
