

UNITI expo goes stateside

The UNITI expo road show visited three trade fairs in as many weeks to promote all aspects of the event to key visitor target sectors.

The World LPG show in London was quickly followed by Oil&Non Oil for the Italian market in Rome, before the team re grouped in Atlanta, USA for the NACS PEI Convention. Working with the PEI in the States, UNITI expo had an information booth right at the main entrance to the show, which was busy for much of the time from potential exhibitors and visitors.

Next stop is Autocomplex in Moscow on 23 – 25 October, followed by the APEA's annual conference in Coventry UK on November 7th. More information at www.uniti-expo.com
