

Total to inform about La Mede refinery reconversion

Total will announce on April 16 the reconversion of its La Mede refinery as well as an additional investment for work at the Donges plant, according to a mid-April report in Les Echos which it called an exclusive report.

The refining activities will stop at La Mede which will become a bio-fuel facility.

There will be no lost production during the reconversion.