

NACS Insight has published the final programme for its Convenience Summit Europe event, June 7th-12th in Berlin and London.

Attendees can join the convenience and petroleum industry summit for either single, or multiple days across the week long event.

The first part of the conference is in Berlin and features conference content and study tours. Then the event moves to London featuring more conference sessions, networking on the London Eye, an awards night and study tours in London's latest convenience and petroleum stores.

Presentations and speakers include: Chopstix Group, Shell, Topaz, SPAR Ireland, Cumberland Gulf, Carrefour, Euro Garages, Applegreen, Musgrave, Marks and Spencer, ResearchFarm, Nielsen, Deutsche Bank, Migrolino, McMillanDoolittle, Okamura Consulting, PepsiCo and XS Foodservice.

Nine finalists are competing for the International Convenience Retailer of the Year 2015: Applegreen, Centra, Deli de Luca, Euro Garages, Migrolino, Spar UK, Spar Ireland, Spot! Café and Topaz.

Dan Munford, Managing Director of Insight – Global Convenience Retail Strategists, partners of NACS in Europe said in an interview with PetrolPlaza “This year's event will give convenience and petroleum retailers a cutting edge insight into the latest developments and innovations in our industry. Many of the world's leading and most exciting businesses are either speaking or in the audience”.

Click here to find the finale event programme

According to the organisers, last minute registrations are still accelerating. Attendees can register online, or for more info contact Insight directly.