

PetrolPlaza TV Scandinavian Special: SPT Branschdagen 2016 Event Review

PetrolPlaza TV attended the SPT Branschdagen, an event that brings together Sweden's fuel retailing industry. Organized by the SPT Association, the Branschdagen takes place every two years in city of Stockholm (Sweden).

A rich conference programme covered topics such as alternative fuels, Vapor Recovery systems, and new forms of payment. At the exhibition, Sweden's industry players showcased some of their newest products.

In the report we interview the organizers and some of the exhibiting companies.
