

UK: Forty Morrisons c-stores to open at Rontec sites

British fuel retailer Rontec is extending its partnership with Morrisons by opening another 40 convenience stores across its petrol stations.

After a “successful” partnership between Rontec and Morrisons Daily stores, the two companies have decided to expand their partnership, reports Talking Retail.

Rontec is one of the leading players in the UK forecourt industry, operating over 240 forecourts across England and Wales.

Meanwhile, Morrisons is ending its pilot program at Motor Fuel Group (MFG) petrol stations that began in October 2015 with the addition of five new convenience stores in April.
