

Jay Walsh becomes new President of Franklin Fueling Systems

Franklin Fueling Systems has promoted Jay Walsh to the position of President of the company.

Jay Walsh, former Executive Vice President, will be responsible for bringing the company forward and continue expanding their products and services for the petroleum industry.

“My focus will remain on our commitment to providing products and services that protect human health and the environment, while delivering the lowest total cost of ownership to our customers,” said Jay Walsh.

During his 22 years in Franklin Fueling Systems, Walsh held various positions in technical service, sales, and product management.

“As the leader in underground petroleum equipment, Franklin Fueling Systems will continue to build upon our mission to provide total system solutions to our customers worldwide,” he added.

Two other major promotions have been announced by Franklin Fueling Systems: John Adrian will take up the role of Senior VP, Sales, Americas/EMEA; while Tony Hsu has been promoted to VP Sales, Asia.
