ICIS Pan American Base Oils & Lubricants Conference

The ICIS Pan American Base Oils & Lubricants Conference has established itself as the must-attend event in the Americas, attracting over 300 attendees from across the globe to meet and do business.

Across 3 days in Jersey City, the event is packed with high-level conference content focusing on the North, Central and Southern American markets with an expert speaker line-up, addressing key topics and trends including the changing of supply patterns of Group III in North America, an update on ILSAC GF-6 and the outlook for Mexico within the lubricants industry.

Alongside thought-leading insights, significant networking time has been built into the programme to ensure you make the most out of your time out of the office. As the biggest event in the region for the base oils and finished lubricants communities, the 2018 conference welcomed more than 160 companies from 27 countries, and 2019 is set to be even better.
