LNGgc Asia 2020

As the energy industry transitions into a new mix and contends with new demand generators, opportunities need to be harnessed. This transformation is extending into strategic technology investments, safe and efficient operations, and their impact on profitability.

LNG is no different.

Part of Global LNG Series and OSEA 2020, LNGgc Asia Congress will offer a blend of commercial, strategic and technical insights to enable competitive advantage. 28+ speakers will share hot-off-the-press insights and showcase collaboration opportunities that will open up new avenues for your business.
