Bangladesh's LPG market is red-hot, projected to grow over 500% to meet increasing energy demands as well as the projected shortage of natural gas. In 2017, this unique event brought together over 2400+ business representatives, government and officials for 2 days, opening up amazing opportunities for business development for LPG in Asia.

This forum is the place to be seen when it comes to being in the middle of the action in Bangladesh and the neighboring countries like Nepal, Pakistan and India, all of which have rapidly developing LPG markets of their own.

Speakers include:

- David Appleton

ARGUS exploring the future trends in global LPG demand and supply
