

StocExpo Middle East Africa

The leading event for the Middle East and African tank storage markets.

StocExpo Middle East Africa (formerly Tank World Expo) returns to Dubai on the 17th & 18th of April for the biggest and most exciting show to date. Oil & gas professionals from across the Middle East and African regions will be coming together in one of the world's key oil trading hubs, to do business and network with industry peers.

What's taking place and what's new for 2018:

- Over 80 leading industry suppliers
- Technology, live demonstrations and product launches
- Two day CPD Certified conference
- Visitor smart badge technology - allowing you to easily download exhibitor and product information around the show floor
