

NACS Convenience Summit Asia 2018

NACS Convenience Summit Asia takes place in Hong Kong, featuring thought leadership, store tours and opportunities to build strategic relationships in the Asian market.

What You'll Experience

The 2018 NACS Convenience Summit Asia will be held in the vibrant city of Hong Kong. There, attendees will experience a robust conference agenda featuring inspiring speakers and case studies, thought-provoking discussions on critical topics such as business and technology disruption from Amazon, Alibaba, Alipay, Tencent TenPay, and much more...and interactive store tours!

Attendees will benefit from:

- Powerful networking and collaboration with global retail leaders and C-Suite executives from Asia and around the world.
- Thought-provoking education including presentations from inspiring speakers, roundtable conversations with industry leaders and engaging group discussions on vital industry topics.
- Unique retail perspectives through case studies that give attendees an inside look at how some of the strongest retailers compete and succeed in the Hong Kong markets
- Local store tours at diverse retail formats that allow retailers to see what's working in different markets so they can apply new concepts to their stores at home.
