

The 2018 European Base Oils & Lubricants interactive Summit

Celebrating 10 years of bringing together key players from the European Base Oils & Lubricants Industry

28-29 November 2018 - Florence, Italy

European Base Oils & Lubricants interactive Summit 2018

Following the positive reception to last year's new interactive format. We are proud to bring you the enhanced 2018 European Base Oils & Lubricants interactive Summit. We have learned a great deal from the industry over the last 10 years about the direction our event needs to take in order to provide you with an even more valuable insights and networking opportunities.

The 2018 Summit will feature:

- Looking to bring together 200+ decision makers from across the entire Base Oils & Lubricants value chain
- Pre-Event Networking Drinks Reception sponsored by Lubrizol
- The Lubrizol OEM Seminar: OEMs Challenges 2030 and beyond – with so many exciting challenges ahead, why not join Lubrizol for this much-awaited Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) seminar, where key OEMs from both the commercial vehicle and passenger car business areas will provide their insights into these areas, and provide strategies that are in view to address them.
- Site Visit – ENI Refinery – Livorno
- Parallel Streams dedicated to Industrial lubricants and Automotive Lubricants allowing delegates to “lean in” and have in-depth discussions with like-minded peers
- Structured networking activities: Meet & Greet, Blackout Bingo, Speed Networking, Carpet bowls, Social lotto and Business card contest
- Interactive format with on-stage interviews, panel discussions, in-conversation and lunch round tables. The summit will ensure that delegates receive content in a way that is engaging and interactive, that also allows for everyone to be part of the wider conversation
