

Brendan Warn is appointed senior vice-president, Investor Relations of Total

Warn succeeds Mike Sangster from the start of the year at the international oil company.

Brendan Warn is appointed Senior Vice-President, Investor Relations of Total, effective January 1, 2019.

Prior to joining Total, Brendan was Managing Director and UK Head of Equity Research at BMO Capital Markets in London. Brendan has more than 13 years of experience in equity research across three investment banks including Macquarie Capital and Jefferies International in London.

Previously, Brendan was an Associate Director at Evans & Peck and a mining engineer at BHP in Australia. Brendan qualified as a Mining Engineering at the University of South Australia and holds a Master of Commerce from The University of New South Wales, and an MBA from University of New South Wales and the University of Sydney.

Total is a major energy company that produces and supplies oil, natural gas and low-carbon electricity.
