

Sheetz opens new c-store in Pennsylvania

The Altoona-based company runs now 15 locations in Lancaster County.

The new Sheetz site is serving along Greenfield Road, near Route 30. The location has 5,420-square-foot and replaces an old fuel station. Customers will be offered made-to-order food alongside snack, beverages and beers.

The new site is connected to a Fulk Bank office.

Sheet opened its first store in New Holland in 1996. Today, it operates 15 locations in Lancaster County. In all, Sheetz owns 585 stores, mostly in West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina.
