

Argentina: Shell service stations to offer e-lockers

After an alliance with Packasap and Correo Argentino, customers will be able to store, deliver and receive parcels quickly and securely.

Raízen Argentina, licensee of the Shell brand, will offer e-lockers service at Shell service stations via an alliance with Packasap and Correo Argentino. The goal is for customers to be able to store, deliver and receive their parcels quickly and securely.

The service is currently available at a number of service stations and is expected to be expanded soon. Through this service, users will be able to make purchases in any online store and choose the locker system to receive their order. Customers can store packages up to 44cm x 36.5cm x 42cm with a maximum weight of 20kg.

"Through this alliance, Raízen demonstrates that it is at the forefront of innovation by offering its customers an additional service to facilitate their online purchases. Consumers have increasingly modern lifestyles, busy, and time pressure, each consumer values more their free time to do things they want and enjoy," said Carolina Wood, Marketing Director of Raízen Argentina.
