

International Car Wash Group acquires 15 car wash sites

Major expansion from Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The International Car Wash Group (ICWG), the world's largest local car wash, has started the year by acquiring of three regional car wash companies. In the Waco, Texas area, Baird Brothers Express Car Wash has four locations joining ICWG.

The Wash Factory includes seven locations; five in the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas metro area and two in the suburbs of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Your Express brings four sites in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex to the ICWG portfolio.

ICWG also has several greenfield sites under construction and development in the Texas market.

According to Jeff Maize, ICWG's Senior Vice President, Acquisitions, "We were looking to significantly grow our presence in the Texas market and are fortunate to have struck deals to acquire these three important operators to give us a larger base for continued growth and expansion in both Texas and Oklahoma."

It operates over 925 locations in 14 countries across US, Europe and Australia, with 184 U.S. venues.
