

CITGO increases availability of CITGARD at FleetPride Service Centers

More CITGO lubricants available to heavy-duty vehicles across the United States.

FleetPride Service Centers are bringing the CITGO family of lubricants to new customers across North America, as CITGO is now the primary supplier of engine oil and other lubricants at all FleetPride Service Center locations across the U.S.

"We're proud to bring the CITGARD line of heavy-duty lubricants to a wider customer base through our partnership with FleetPride, a brand that shares our dedication to providing innovative solutions, superior service and the best products to keep heavy duty trucks and trailers rolling across America," said CITGO Vice President Supply and Marketing Karl Schmidt.

With 44 locations spanning 25 states, FleetPride's Service Center network is one of the nation's largest heavy duty aftermarket service providers. Coupled with FleetPride's expansive parts offering, footprint and expertise, FleetPride Service Centers keep customers Ready for the Road Ahead.

"As our Service Center network continues to grow, we recognize the need to expand our nationwide premium lubricant offering. This alliance with CITGO advances our commitment to offering superior products, services and solutions to our Service Center customers across the country," said Nathan Lamb, Vice President of Service Operations for FleetPride.

Responding to COVID-19

Due to the difficulties ensured by the pandemic, the Simón Bolívar Foundation, the non-profit, private foundation of CITGO Petroleum Corporation, has launches a food drive program called "Hoy Invita Simón," an initiative that will provide grants of up to $50,000 on a rolling basis to qualified nonprofits to develop food assistance projects.
