

USA: Waterway Express to open fifth location in Ohio

A closed Al Paul Auto Wash located in Cleveland will re-open its doors as Waterway Express in December.

Waterway Express will convert an Al Paul Auto Wash located in Cleveland, which closed in May 2019, into its newest centre in Ohio. The new car wash will open in December this year and will be Waterway's fifth location in Ohio, according to Cleveland.com.

Waterway's new centre will offer a single-tunnel exterior-only wash.

"Our goal is, from on-site to completely done, your entire experience will be around five minutes," said Waterway Vice President and General Counsel, Michael Goldman.

Waterway celebrated its 50th anniversary in August.
