

The first Ampol Woolworths Metro opens

Ampol and Woolworths' Metro have partnered to boost the convenience offering of the Australian fuel retailer.

Last week two iconic Australian brands, Ampol and Woolworths, came together for the very first time with the launch of Ampol Woolworths Metro in Dee Why, according to a company Facebook post.

The site brings the Dee Why community and its visitors a localised and convenient offering where customers can get access to the new Amplify premium fuels, as well as fresh food-for-now, food-for-later and even hats and things for the beach. The launch also sees the Ampol brand return to Sydney's northern beaches for the first time in 25 years.

Customers in broader Sydney will also get a glimpse into the new format, Ampol Woolworths Metro, with the Northmead, Lane Cove and Randwick sites scheduled to be upgraded over the next few months.
