

Parkland appoints Marcel Teunissen as Chief Financial Officer

Marcel joins Parkland from Royal Dutch Shell, where he was responsible for the financial management of Shell's LNG global portfolio and its new energy business.

Parkland Corporation announced the appointment of Marcel Teunissen as Chief Financial Officer, effective December 1, 2020.

Marcel joins Parkland from Royal Dutch Shell, where he was Executive Vice President, Finance, Integrated Gas and New Energies, responsible for the financial management of Shell's global portfolio of LNG assets and its emerging new energy business. With over 23 years of experience, Marcel has worked globally across the entire energy value chain, with an emphasis on refining, retail and related infrastructure, according to Parkland's press release.

Upon Marcel's arrival, Darren Smart, who has served as interim CFO since December 2019, will return to his role of Senior Vice President, Strategy & Corporate Development which will be expanded to include developing and leading Parkland's low-carbon and renewables strategy. Darren will continue to report directly to Bob Espey, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Parkland is an independent supplier and marketer of fuel and petroleum products and a leading convenience store operator. Parkland services customers across Canada, the United States, the Caribbean region and the Americas through three channels: retail, commercial and wholesale.
