

USA: Clean Machine Car Wash to launch 15 new sites in South Florida

The new developments would place the company as the largest independent express carwash in Florida, says Clean Streak President, Greg Ries.

Clean Streak Ventures, a portfolio company of MKH Capital Partners, revealed plans to expand to South Florida with 15 new sites in the pipeline for this fall. The new developments would place the company as the largest independent express carwash in Florida, says Clean Streak President, Greg Ries.

The expansions plans initiated with the company's first Southeast Florida site in Port St. Lucie this spring, and the recent opening of Clean Machine Car Wash's first location in Miami.

Located in Cutler Bay, Miami site is the 13th location under the Clean Machine Car Wash brand, and the 20th site in the company's overall portfolio.

The Clean Streak pipeline includes 15 new sites in Port St. Lucie, Oviedo, Fort Myers, Estero, Lake Worth, Port Charlotte, Port Orange, Winter Haven, Lakeland and more.

Most of these car washes will fall under the Clean Machine brand, with the sites in Orlando under the Top Dog brand.
