

ModWash acquires Home Team Car Wash's Florida network

The addition of three new locations will amp the firm's current network to 52 car wash sites across 11 states.

Commercial Plus Group has announced the acquisition of Home Team Car Wash, with three locations in Florida, by ModWash. With this expansion, ModWash currently operates a total of 11 sites in the state with another 30 in development set to open in the near future.

"Alex and the team at Commercial Plus Group are truly client-focused. They guided me through the process and were outstanding to work with. I appreciated their deep understanding of the Tampa region and am confident their expertise in the car wash industry helped me get the maximum value for my sites," said Eric Schlueter, owner of Home Team Car Wash.

ModWash launched in 2020 and has been growing its footprint since then. The transaction has added three new locations to its total network of 52 sites across 11 states of the currently ranked 17th firm on the Top 100 Conveyor Car Washes List.

"We are grasping a unique opportunity here at ModWash to create a positive ripple effect both inside and outside of the car wash industry. That is what our ModDrop stands for! Even the smallest positive action will ripple outward touching everyone in our communities. We are proud to lead a revolution of awesome experiences in the car wash space!" added Harry T. Jenkins, Chief Operating officer for ModWash.
