

Petrol PLAZA

UNITI expo presents patron for upcoming edition

Daniela Kluckert, Parliamentary State Secretary to Germany's Federal Minister for Digital and Transport, will continue on this role for UNITI expo 2024.

UNITI expo is gearing up for its return on May 14-16, 2024, and proudly announces that Daniela Kluckert, Parliamentary State Secretary to the Federal Minister for Digital and Transport of Germany, will continue her role as patron for the upcoming edition. Having served as patron of UNITI expo 2022, she will maintain her position to endorse the leading European trade fair for the retail petroleum and car wash industries once more.

“We are happy to welcome Daniela Kluckert once again as patron of UNITI expo. With her continued support and expertise, we remain committed to addressing the future challenges of the industry, including the transition to alternative fuels and the transformation of fueling destinations into mobility hubs,” states Elmar Kühn, Managing Director of UNITI-Kraftstoff GmbH, organizer of the trade fair.

Kluckert epitomizes UNITI expo's commitment to the development of the industries, while the German government maintains its support and recognition of the event's global significance as a pivotal platform for the evolution of mobility. The Future Mobility Lounge is a prime example of its dedication to staying abreast of current trends.

Daniela Kluckert, Parliamentary State Secretary to the Federal Minister for Digital and Transport of Germany

In addition to the Parliamentary State Secretary to Germany's Federal Minister for Digital and Transport, other political figures have shown interest in attending the trade fair. Public endorsement plays a crucial role in fostering strong connections between the business and political spheres, as visitors and exhibitors from across the world will convene at UNITI expo 2024.

"Having Kluckert's patronage not only fills us with excitement but also underscores our responsibility to nurture professionals from both the private and public sectors," adds Kühn.

Stay tuned for new releases in the coming weeks with updates and announcements on the event. Constantly updated information for exhibitors and visitors can be found at www.uniti-expo.com.