

OPW wins three safety awards from Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation and Greater Hamilton Safety Council

The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation and the Greater Hamilton Safety Council announce OPW employees of the manufacturing facility in Hamilton, Ohio, as winner for outstanding safety at the 72nd Annual Greater Hamilton Safety Council Awards Banquet.

"The city of Hamilton and the state of Ohio have been great partners of OPW," said Mark Gerardi, Director of Operations at OPW Above Ground Retail Fueling. "And with their support, the support of OPW's parent company, and the support of every employee, this facility has surpassed 1.5-million hours worked without a lost-time accident. Incredible."

OPW thanks the more than 200 companies that are part of Greater Hamilton Safety Council and the more than 250,000 companies covered by the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation for their pursuit of better safety and quality of life for their employees.
