

Quick Quack celebrates new opening with 10 day free car wash

Quick Quack is giving away free car washes for 10 days to celebrate a new opening in Amarillo, Texas, city where the first Quick Quack was built.

It has been 14 years since the car wash company last open a new site in its city of origin, Amarillo. Drivers will be able to enjoy free car wash services at the new location from January 15th to 24th.

The new location will be Quick Quack's fourth in Amarillo and the twentieth car wash in the country.

"It has been far too long since we opened a new location in Amarillo and now we are planning on at least one more this year," said Jason Johnson, President of Quick Quack Car Wash. "We are especially excited to add hand towel drying at all our Amarillo locations. We are confident that we provide the fastest, cleanest, and now driest, express car wash in town."

The newly renovated car wash (formerly Aqua Express) is located at 1920 South Grand Street, behind Braum's Ice Cream and Sonic Drive-In. Quick Quack will also be introducing a new hand towel-dry service at all Amarillo locations.

Quick Quack Car Wash has 20 locations spread throughout Texas, California and Colorado, and has been recognized as one of the Top 50 Car wash chains in the United States, according to the company.
