

US: Mister Car Wash expands in Texas

Mister Car Wash continues its acquisition streak by taking over six locations of Killeen, Texas-based The Car Wash Barn. This latest acquisition brings the company's total Texas locations to 60 in Houston, Austin, El Paso, Lubbock, Abilene, and Killeen, states a company release.

Car Wash Barn operates 6 locations in the communities of Killeen, Temple, Fort Hood, Copperas Cove and Pflugerville, Texas.

These new sites will be part of Mister Car Wash network of 188 car washes and 34 express lubes present in 20 states.

Curtis Emmons, owner of Car Wash Barn, believes that the business they had built would be in good hands, "We started the car wash as a family, the Mister Car Wash team operates their business in a similar fashion and every team member has a place within the organization."

"The Car Wash Barn team developed a great operation and their dedication to the communities they serve is unmatched. We're proud to continue the great legacy they've started and build on their people first culture," said Casey Lindsay, Director of Acquisitions, Mister Car Wash.
