

TLM Technologies appoint new Sales Director

TLM Technologies has announced the appointment of Paul Muncey as Sales Director.

Paul Muncey, new Sales Director for TLM Technologies, has over 30 years of experience in the convenience and fuel retail industry including 15 years with Certas Energy, most recently as Head of Network Sales. Certas Energy is the largest independent fuel and lubricants distributor in the UK with a network of over 800 contracted retail forecourts.

Having played a key role in bringing the brand back to life Gulf, Paul also started Gulf Aviation in 2008 before returning to Retail in 2011 and assisting with acquisitions and mergers of organisations such as Pace and Total, contributing to the rapid growth of the business.

"I am genuinely delighted and excited to join the TLM team; having known Lee and Ron for almost 20 years, I have observed TLM's meteoric rise to success over the last two years, and followed them with great interest," commented Paul Muncey.

TLM Technologies provides technology and support to fuel and convenience retailers.
