

Ireland: Maxol refurbishes station with €500,000 investment

Maxol, Ireland's leading family owned forecourt and convenience retailer has welcomed three new eateries to Maxol, Western Road, Clonakilty.

The latest additions to the station are Abrakebabra, Bagel Factory and O'Brien's Sandwich Café to complement Maxol's own Moreish deli in-store.

The recently refurbished Maxol station follows an investment of €500,000 with the creation of 15 new jobs, which has been a boost to the local area, and will bring total employment to 35 at Maxol, Clonakilty.

"This recent investment of €500,000 in Maxol Clonakilty is part of an overall focus on customers with the refurbishment of nine stations throughout the Maxol network over the last twelve months," said Brian Donaldson.

The newly refurbished station provides customers with a large comfortable seating area, modern restroom facilities, and includes improved wheelchair accessibility features.

Maxol has been investing and expanding in recent years and currently has a network of 234 service stations, of which 115 are company owned.
