Part of KPI's 2040 strategy is to strengthen its businesses in Italy, Germany, Spain, UK, and the Benelux region (Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg) as well as increase the company's petroleum products coming to Europe, reports Kuwait News Agency.

"Our 2040 strategy is built upon further growth of businesses in Europe, while inculcating Innovation and Digitalization as core elements in our group," said Khalid Al Mushaileh, vice-president KPI Europe.

KPI, known by its trademark Q8, supplies fuel and other petroleum products to more than 5,000 service stations across Europe.
