

PDQ Manufacturing signs new distributor for Australia

One Stop Carwash Equipment partners with PDQ Manufacturing in Australia.

PDQ Manufacturing, a leading manufacturer of in-bay automatic vehicle wash systems, has announced the appointment of One Stop Carwash Equipment Pvt. Ltd. as a new distributor of PDQ vehicle wash equipment for the states of Victoria and Tasmania in Australia.

Headquartered near Melbourne, One Stop is owned by Glen Gamble, who has more than 10 years of experience in the vehicle wash industry and an electrical engineering background.

“PDQ has been selling in Australia for over 25 years. Glen and his company bring a wealth of industry knowledge and experience, along with a commitment to outstanding customer service,” said Rob Lewis, International Sales Manager for PDQ.

PDQ’s other regional distributors in Australia, TEAM (Queensland), Carwash World (South Australia, New South Wales and NT), Carwash Spares and Repairs (Western Australia), and Pacific Carwash Systems (New Zealand) continue to provide service to those regions.
