

PetrolPlaza TV: UNITI expo 2018 event review

PetrolPlaza visited the leading European trade show for the forecourt and carwash sectors. Watch our first video review from UNITI expo 2018.

Over 17,000 attendees are reported to have taken part in UNITI expo 2018, which took place May 15 – 17 in Stuttgart, Germany, beating the previous record of UNITI expo 2016 of 15,000 attendees, according to the organizers.

Three days of trade fair welcomed 467 exhibitors from 37 countries and participants from over 120 nations, cementing its role once again as the biggest European event for the forecourt and carwash industries.

In this report we interview Kevin Long, President of OPW; Jeannot Bruggeling, Commercial Director at Bever; Jonas Thor Olsen, CEO of Autofuel.me; David Crouse, President at Dover Fueling Solutions; Martin Kiefer, Coca-Cola European Partners; Frank Shan, Sanki; and Kevin Powell, Ledbury Welding & Engineering.

This is the first video of a series of reviews that we will publish over the days. You can look forward to reports on 'Alternative Fuels', 'Carwash & Carcare' and 'Payment and Technology' with leading industry players.
