

Total opens four new sites in Cambodia

Global oil company celebrates 25 years active in Cambodia with the new openings.

Total Cambodge opened four new gas stations in Phnom Penh on Friday to mark its 25th anniversary in Cambodia.

All new locations are placed in important primary and secondary roads and feature a coffee shop and oil change services.

“Total is speeding up its development programme and soon we will be able to serve more customers in smaller cities as well,” said Asif Iqbal, Total Cambodge’s managing director.

Active in the Asian country since 1993, the company now has 75 service stations and 30 convenience stores in the country, according to the Khmer Times.
