

New Zealand: Z Energy signs card processing deal with WEX

WEX Card Australia will process Z Energy's fuel cards over the next 5 years.

Z Energy has selected WEX to develop, support and manage a fuel card processing platform for Z Energy in New Zealand along with an agreement to process Z Energy's fuel cards over the next 5 years.

"Our ongoing investment in our technology infrastructure and front end systems is strengthening our reputation as the fuel card provider of choice for the major fuel companies in the region," said WEX Asia Pacific Managing Director, Rick Rose.

With this new deal WEX further expands into New Zealand for the fuel arm of the business, in addition to having started its footprint in Asia Pacific.
