

Mister Car Wash announces acquisition of Prime Shine Car Wash

Mister Car Wash has acquired a chain of car wash sites in California to expand its network.

Mister Car Wash has announced its acquisition of Prime Shine Car Wash, a chain of 19 express stores based in Modesto, California.

"The Prime Shine organization is a gold standard in the industry and we couldn't be more pleased to welcome them into the Mister family," said Casey Lindsay, Vice President, Mergers and Acquisitions for Mister Car Wash.

Prime Shine Car Wash owners, Norm and Evan Porges, are confident of the business' continued success under the Mister brand. "Finding the right company to continue our legacy was important to us," said Norm Porges, Founder/Chairman of Prime Shine.

Customers of Prime Shine can expect the business to continue to operate as normal following the purchase. Throughout the next year, Mister Car Wash will be working closely with the Prime Shine team to rebrand the stores and optimize service and product offerings.

Headquartered in Tucson, Arizona, Mister Car Wash operates 286 car washes and 33 oil change express locations in 21 states.
