CSNA - Convenience Stores & Newsagents Association

The Convenience Stores & Newsagents Association of Ireland represents retailers big and small nationwide from the independent to the multi-franchise owner, all members are equal. As the only independent retailer-driven trade organisation we represent the interest of our members and no one else. We are focused in our efforts to the benefit of all our members with a range of member's deals, guidance, training and support. As the largest independent retailer trade body we are in a position to ultimately maximise the profits of our members and to protect their interests.

Here are just some of the reasons why you should join CSNA:

- CSNA will assist you in maximising profits
- CSNA supports the retailer as a national level advocate
- CSNA supports you, we listen to the concerns of our members and we respond
- CSNA establishes affinity deals from which you will benefit and increase your bottom line
- CSNA is independent, so your interests are our only interest
- CSNA will be on your side at all times when the voice of the retailer needs to be heard
- CSNA is one of the fastest growing trade organisation in the country – so get on board and enjoy the benefits!

The CSNA is a not for profit organisation which is funded entirely through members' subscriptions; therefore all policies and determinations are member driven and are not subject to either influence or dilution from outside sources.
