

UKPIA - UK Petroleum Industry Association

UKPIA (UK Petroleum Industry Association Ltd.) represents the interests of eight member companies engaged in the UK downstream oil industry on a range of common issues relating to refining, distribution and marketing of oil products, in non-competitive areas.

UKPIA's role is to inform its members of proposed legislation and related developments, and to help form and advocate the industry's position.

UKPIA is also an authoritative source of information and reference on the UK downstream industry.
