

nasm - National Association of Shell Marketers

The National Association of Shell Marketers is dedicated to providing its members with guidance to enhance their Shell-branded business by acting as a key conduit to Shell personnel and programs, providing timely knowledge and industry best practices and providing legal expertise on contracts. As the only organization that exists to serve as an independent voice for Shell marketers across the country, we rely on the strength of our marketer members AND our industry supplier partners to achieve our mission.

NASM strives to deliver value to all our members, whether marketer or supplier associate members. We work to collaborate with Shell personnel to keep open communication that fosters teamwork and synergy throughout the organization. Our goal is to provide our members with quality programs, services and education that helps to grow your business and the Shell brand!
